CAMP SHERMAN SELECTS LEAVE ON FURLoughs

Ten Thousand From Big Camp Will Spend Xmas at Home

FOUR DAYS VACATION FROM ACTIVE DUTIES

Snow Has Disappeared and Left the Big Camp a Sea of Mud

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Dec. 22.—This was getaway day for many of the Ohio and western Pennsylvania selective draft troops at Camp Sherman. Under orders received this week from Washington, 15 per cent, or approximately 5000 soldiers, were given Christmas furloughs today.

Another 5000 men will be given furloughs tomorrow. The men leaving today must return to camp next Wednesday, and the men leaving tomorrow must return next Thursday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Dec. 22.—Except for Christmas day there will be no let-up in the training schedule for the selects here next week. Officers and men are hoping that the weatherman will relent sufficiently to permit them to get in some good work before the first of the year. They have all welcomed the respite from the rigorous outdoor schedule as an opportunity to brush up on fine points of the military game.

It was said at division headquarters today that the men who do not get Christmas leave will go ahead with their work and those that do will be compelled to work that much harder after their return. The schedule for the next week or two for the 331st, 330th and 239th infantry regiments will include their initiation into the mysteries of target practice.

Practically all of the snow has disappeared in the last few days and left the camp a sea of mud. Instructions in bayonet-fighting and semaphore signaling was resumed by the infantry company. Officers attacked their charges in bayonet-fighting with padded stakes, while each select defended himself with his bayonet.

The selects are hoping that negotiations between division athletic director, E. S. Connor, and officials of the Western Skating Association to bring the association's annual tournament to Camp Sherman will materialize. There are a number of selects, he said, who are proficient enough to compete should the event be brought here.

Alien enemies, who were erroneously inducted into the army, are being discharged from the service as fast as their status is discovered. Officers say that only a few have been found.

New officers from the second training camp, who have completed a week's work here, are making good, older officers say. The new men, it is said, have had for the most part, previous military services and have handled men.

Youths under 21 years of age who are anxious to go to war with their brothers, cousins, or friends, and managed to get in the army in some manner, are being weeded out.

About 10 companies of infantry upwards of a thousand negroes are still confined and they seem doomed to spend the Christmas indoors. The negroes are confined because of the discovery of smallpox among their number last week.

Medical officers, who say that Camp Sherman has been unusually fortunate in its health record, are taking every precaution to keep the record up during this damp weather to prevent an epidemic of measles or pneumonia.

TO FACE COURT-MARTIAL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cleveland, Dec. 22.—Forty of the 70 soldiers who took unauthorized leave from Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, to spend Christmas with relatives, were in jail today, waiting to be taken back to camp, where they will face court-martial trial.

A provost guard from Camp Sherman continued to search today for the other 30 men.

MASSES OF GERMAN PEOPLE STARVING

London, Dec. 22.—According to a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam, Voerwaerts of Berlin, in an attack on the system of Herr von Waldow, the German food controller declares great masses of German people are literally starving. The paper adds that agricultural producers and rich residents in town are living in plenty, as hoarding is no longer prohibited.

"Every war profiteer and millionaire," says the paper, "has his kitchen and cellar full of ham and bacon, the middle class keeps a precarious existence, spending all it possesses on food but forty millions of the masses are starving and are unlikely to sit silent."

"We might have within a month an absolute catastrophe in Germany and a collapse even worse than Russia, resulting in a German defeat and loss of the war."

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM SUNDAY

Newark's community Christmas program will be carried out tomorrow (Sunday) at 4:00 o'clock on the public square. The Buckeye band will play, the community Christmas tree will be lighted and a program of music will be given. Rev. D. D. Tullis and Rev. C. H. Stull will speak. The service will be short and very interesting. Prof. Klopp will lead the singing. Everybody is invited to be on the public square at 3:45 Sunday afternoon.

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY DEVELOPS IN LEWIS WAR INQUIRY TESTIMONY

Washington, Dec. 22.—Colonel Isaac Lewis, inventor of the celebrated machine gun bearing his name, today told the senate committee, investigating conduct of the war, the "whole story" of his efforts to get the war department to adopt his invention.

Lewis, center of a stormy controversy of years duration, told the senators that he did not first offer his weapon to the British, but that while still an active officer in the army tried without avail to persuade the war department to accept it free of cost.

Colonel Lewis said he took his invention to the chief of staff—then Major General Leonard Wood. "I wanted to present it to the government," he said. "Even last June I went to the present secretary of war and offered him all my interests without any emoluments. The only condition which I think was fair, was that the official test should not be made at the Springfield arsenal.

"My offer wasn't even considered," Colonel Lewis protested. "It was turned down flat."

A letter, dated December 11 last, renewing his offer of his gun to Secretary Baker was read by Colonel Lewis. In it he offered also to turn over all of his share—43 per cent of all royalties, aggregating $2,000,000, under existing contracts.

In the letter, Colonel Lewis protested against alleged injustice of statements by Secretary Baker regarding the gun. He cited the success the British had with his arm and declared that of 12 Zeppelins brought down by the British, 10 were bagged with the Lewis gun.

"I want it understood that I was, and am ready to give my check to the secretary for my royalties or my interest in the patents," he said, stating he had offered his gun repeatedly in 1911, 1912, and often afterwards.

How he sent his checks for $11,000 and $6700 of royalty receipts to the secretary on certain contracts was detailed by Colonel Lewis.

General Crozier promptly advised its rejection," he said.

Asked why he was willing to give his royalties as well as patents to the government, Colonel Lewis answered:

"I suppose its psychological. I don't need the money. I suppose and hope my offer ultimately will be accepted."

"I simply want patriotically to help the government and because you were in the service?"

"Yes, I was educated by the government. I've been persecuted by the government and I want to help the government."

The ordnance equipment of General Pershing's army, he said, is an "outrage and a disgrace."

REPORTED THAT GERMANS REJECT PEACE PROPOSALS

Opposition to Bolsheviks is overshadowing Military Operations In War

ATTACK IN ALSACE BY THE GERMANS REPULSED

Continued Artillery Activity Along the Various Sectors

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)

The great Krupp Munition plant at Essen, Germany, was reported in flames today. The fire had been raging for 24 hours when reported by workmen arriving from Essen, according to a wireless dispatch from Maastricht, Holland. No further details were given nor was it indicated whether the fire was due to an entente air attack or to other causes. Both French and British airmen have several times raided Essen.

Italian troops in repeated attacks have succeeded in further reducing the dangerous salient which the Austro-German invaders recently drove into the Italian lines in the Monte Asolone region on the mountain front. Scoring additional progress yesterday after their successful effort the day previous, the Italian infantrymen held their ground against counter attacks.

In connection with the reiterated reports that there has been a disagreement on peace terms between the Russian and Teutonic delegates at the Brest Litovsk conference, a Petrograd dispatch today pictures Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, as adopting a truculent tone towards Germany in talking to the soldiers' and workmen's council regarding the negotiations.

Trotzky declared the revolutionists would fight again if the German emperor's terms were offensive to Russia, coupling this, however, with the intimation that Germany's terms might have to be accepted because of Russia's weakness but that the Russians would then join the German people in rising "against German militarism."

Opposition by the Ukrainians and the followers of General Kaledines to the Bolshevik movement, together with an unconfirmed report that the Germans have rejected the peace proposals of the Bolshevik delegates continue to overshadow military operations in the European war. The report that a definite alliance has been formed between the Ukrainians and the Don Cossacks gives credence to another rumor that the Ukrainian Rada has definitely notified the Bolshevik commissioners that it will not reconsider its action in aiding the Kaledines forces.

"Did the Browning gun break in the tests," asked Senator Hitchcock. "Certainly," was the reply.

"They want to kill it, to take the label off it."

The Browning gun, he characterized as "a picture, a figment of the imagination."

(Ordnance manufacturers have previously described it as superior to anything else now known.)

"It's true it got through the arsenal test but never has been in the field," Lewis continued, "I have never seen it but my associates have."

Senator Hitchcock referred to breaking of parts in the Lewis gun in 1913 tests.

"Oh yes," said Lewis. "I never saw any that wouldn't break in tests."

"Did the Browning gun break in the tests," asked Senator Hitchcock.

"Certainly," was the reply.

"I wasn't invited to see the test but any gun breaks in a test."

The 1913 test was premature, against his judgment Colonel Lewis declared, but he did not regard the outcome as a failure for his gun.

"The gun is just the same today as it was then, not a change made," Colonel Lewis said, declaring General Crozier had adopted various different types of machine guns, spending millions on the Bennet-Mercier (a French gun.)

"All the other experts believe the Browning is the best gun developed and you are the only one against them," Senator Hitchcock suggested.

The ordnance equipment of General Pershing's army, he said, is an "outrage and a disgrace."

The experts were interested in manufacturing the Browning.

COAL OPERATORS URGE COMMISSION TO GIVE RELIEF

BRITISH STEAMER TORPEDOED WITH LOSS OF 101 MEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Dec. 22.—A committee of Jackson county district coal operators appeared before the state public utilities commission yesterday to seek relief from the coal shortage which is said to be the worst in the history of coal-mining in this district.

The committee told the committee that Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad, the principal coal road entering this field, has not provided a car for either commercial or government loading for two weeks and that the only cars furnished have been those for loading fuel for the use of the railroad. The commission has ordered the railroad to remedy the situation.

H. H. Johnson, state coal fuel administrator, is in Washington urging the federal fuel administration to issue an order refusing to allow the transportation of coal for plant making what are termed non-essentials. With the warming up of the weather there has been a material reduction in the number of demands for domestic consumers. All of the late coal taken over last week has been distributed. Friday it was reported that there are 1000 empty coal cars at Lorain.

FULTON WOULD NOT
O. K. CHARGE FOR BEER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Dec. 22.—Because of containing a charge of $3 for beer and small charges for cigars and taxi cabs, Secretary of State Fulton returned for correction the expense statement of the Hamilton county election board, showing what the board spent in going to Camp Sherman, Ala., to vote the soldiers. The report shows that the board paid $4 and $5 a day for assistants. The explanation from Cincinnati was that "beer" in the report meant "root beer."

Fulton told the board that these items would have to be eliminated.

300,000 APPLES FOR SOLDIERS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 22.—American soldiers in France soon will receive a shipment of 300,000 Missouri apples, the gift of produce dealers of St. Louis.

Assembling of the apples has been completed and it was announced that the shipment would go forward as soon as transportation can be arranged.

NO SUGAR IN CLEVELAND.

Cleveland, Dec. 22.—Cleveland practically was a sugarless city yesterday with only a few pounds on hand in scattered retail stores.

Wholesale grocers declared they did not have a pound of sugar on hand and that there is no hope of getting shipments into the city this week or possibly the next two weeks.

OHIOANS ABOARD THE SANTA CLAUS TRAIN WILL VISIT SOUTH

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, Dec. 22.—Three hundred Ohioans from over the state were on their way to Cincinnati today, where tonight they start on a state's first "Santa Claus Train." The Buckeye Christmas special to Montgomery, Ala., will take mothers, fathers, sisters, sweethearts and friends to Camp Sheridan to spend the holidays with Ohio boys of the National Guard who have not been granted Christmas furloughs. Thousands of gifts are to be taken along in care of the state of Ohio.

Governor Cox, who with his party, will have a special train, went to Cincinnati today from his Dayton home, accompanied by Mrs. Cox, his daughter, Miss Helen; his son, James, Jr., and several friends—Mrs. Gunkel, Adjutant General George H. Wood, Houston Lowe of Dayton, Emmet R. Curtin of Lima, and Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Gimperling, Jr., assistant adjutant general.

The remainder of the Ohio delegation has been distributed in eight coaches, in which they will live until their return Wednesday. An addition of seven baggage cars, containing the gifts for the men, will make the train an imposing one on its trip to Dixi.

The state has made preparations to handle the Buckeye delegation on its arrival in Cincinnati, without congestion. A special desk at the Pennsylvania station will have mileage books made out in the name of each person, reservations prepared and all other details in readiness. The party will make the special their home until its return to Cincinnati next week. The passenger coaches will be parked in downtown Montgomery, but the baggage containing the gifts will be run directly into camp to expedite delivery.

Gifts have been assembled in groups so that a captain can get all for his men without sorting through the enormous number of packages. Receipts will be required from the captains and unit commanders, and also the men. Arrangements have been made by the state whereby the person who sent each gift will get a card telling of its delivery to the soldier intended. Hundreds of presents were bought from a publicly-subscribed fund to be given to those boys who are forgotten or who otherwise might get no gifts.

YOUNG OFFICERS VOLUNTEER AS AIR OBSERVERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
With the American Army in France, Thursday, December 21—There is no scarcity for volunteers for dangerous work of airplane observers among the younger officers of the army. When a call was issued at the heavy artillery training grounds three times the number asked for responded. Some of these were sent to train with American pilots and others with French. The latter are doing the observation work for the heavy artillery which the Americans had been working with guns approximately from 150 to 400 millimetres calibre are now ready to fire.

The American artillery today watched the French handling the gigantic 400 millimetre gun which hurls a projectile weighing more than a ton at such a great range that it was necessary to haul the weapon several miles outside the training grounds, which are probably the largest in the world, so that the shells would fall on open ground at the targets. The firing continued all day, the terrific explosions shaking the houses in the territory and being heard at a distance of many miles.

After a certain period the American gunners will begin firing with 400 millimetre pieces so that by the time they get into action they will be as familiar with the guns as their comrades now are with the 75's. During the firing a big shell burst prematurely near an observation post filled with young American officers. Splinters and fragments rained down but no one was injured.

Among the heavy guns with which the Americans have begun working are big howitzers of a certain calibre which are declared to be among the most powerful weapons the war has produced.

Lodges

K. OF P.

Newark Lodge. The regular weekly meeting of Newark Lodge, No. 13, held on Thursday evening had about an average attendance in spite of the weather. The regular routine of business was light and consumed very little time. The relief committee reports the sick members improving, and as the lodge has now only two members drawing relief it is very remarkable for a membership of over 600. Nine applications were voted upon and elected to membership. Three pases being present were called and duly proven in the rank of esquire. Next Thursday evening the page rank will be conferred on a large class and the lesson of friendship will be exemplified in the dramatic form at this meeting and all members that have not seen this work should avail themselves of the opportunity to see it. January 10 is the date set for the annual entertainment and the committee promises something fine at this time and a large crowd should be in attendance.

GIVE STAMPS INSTEAD OF CASH

Sixty of the largest firms in Columbus that heretofore have given Christmas presents in cash to their employees have bought Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates for Christmas distribution next Tuesday. Each of these firms has bought Thrift Stamps or War Savings Certificates varying in amount from $45 to $3,000. One Akron company has bought $22,000 worth of Thrift Stamps to give to its employees next Tuesday and reports from many cities show that the custom this year of giving government stamps instead of money is general.

Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates have the same government security as Liberty Bonds. The Thrift Stamps bear no interest but 16 of them, costing 25 cents each, may be exchanged for a $5 war certificate paying 4% interest compounded by adding 12 cents in cash any time before February 1st. Or war certificates may be purchased at any time before February 1st for $4.12.

War certificates are non-taxable and are redeemable in cash at any time for the amount one pays for them plus about 3% interest, but if held for five years they yield 4% compounded quarterly. No person may hold more than $1,000 worth, but one may buy any amount at the present time for use as gifts, providing no single gift exceeds $1,000.

If every person in the United States will buy one 25 cent stamp that will give the government $25,000,000 and if every person should buy one stamp every day the problem of financing the war would be solved. The value of establishing the custom of saving among the people is beyond estimate.

Help your government to win the war, help your employees to become savers instead of spenders by giving Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates on Christmas Day.

Regular meeting of Licking Aerie No. 387, F. O. E., was held last Tuesday evening with a large number of members in attendance. It was decided not to hold a meeting next Tuesday, because it is Christmas, but to postpone it till Thursday, December 27. It was also decided to hold no meeting on January 1. The next regular meeting after December 27th will be held January 8th. The entertainment committee reported they had completed arrangements for the entertainment of the kiddies on New Year's afternoon at the Eagle home. The wives of the members are expected to bring the little ones, and the committee will do the rest. The banquet New Year's night will be served promptly at 7:30, at the conclusion of which dancing will begin. Both Past State President Russell M. Knepper and State Secretary Ed. L. Hyman will be guests at the banquet, and deliver short addresses. Those members who have had the pleasure of hearing either or both of these brothers in the past, will realize the fact there is a treat in store for them on this occasion. The local members, as well as members of other Aeries, who are residing in this city, are requested to fill out and mail cards to chairman Henry C. Fitzsimmons, notifying him the number of reservations desired for family at banquet, and also the number of their kiddies who will be at the club in afternoon. These cards should be in the hands of the committee at least four days prior to January 1st. The banquet and ball will be held in Knights of Pythias hall.

PRISON TERMS GIVEN DETROIT CONSPIRATORS

Detroit, Dec. 22.—Albert C. Kalt Schmidt, who with four or five others, was convicted in federal court early today on a conspiracy charge, was sentenced a few hours later to four years in federal prison at Fort Leavenworth and to pay a fine of $20,000. It was the maximum sentence possible under the law, for conviction on the three counts against him. Mrs. Ida Neef, his sister, was sentenced to three years in the local house of correction and fined $13,000; Fritz A. Neef, her husband, Carl Schmidt and his wife, Maria, were sentenced to two years imprisonment and fined $10,000 each. Schmidt will serve his term at Fort Leavenworth and his wife will be sent to Detroit house of correction.

In supporting the decision to hold the investigation behind closed doors B. M. Stark, general manager, indicated he believed the public would be sufficiently represented by the agents of the Interstate commerce commission who would be present. Facts revealed by the investigation, it was promised, would be made public when the inquiry was completed.

In addition to the inquiry into the cause leading to the wreck, an investigation will be conducted by a special grand jury which will meet next Wednesday.

The death today of W. C. Johnson of Deatsville, brought the total number of dead up to 47.

CHRISTMAS FOR SOLDIERS.

It's the soldiers' Christmas this year. Even the children will take second place.

Christmas is going to come not only to every soldier in an encampment or cantonment in the United States, and to every sailor on shipboard or in port, but also to every man in a prison-camp, and to every man in uniform, somewhere in France, or anywhere else in the service. They will all celebrate Christmas, through the efforts of the Y. M. C. A., in co-operation with other organizations. Not one will be left out on Christmas.

THE RED CROSS.

The appeal for Red Cross members is something which should interest every American on several grounds.

First there is the relief of human suffering. The misery of wounded men as they lie on the field unattended, bleeding, thirsting and fevered, is something that we in our comfortable homes can't realize. Then come the Red Cross stretcher-bearers, and gently pick up the poor fellows, often risking their own lives to get them out of No Man's Land.

Taken to the field hospital, their wounds are quickly cared for by the best medical talent. As the result, most of the wounded are restored to health. Soldiers are saved who in former warfare would be doomed. The loving ministrations of the Red Cross assuages pain and relieves weakness, and saves the boy who would otherwise be under the sod. They are all our boys, whether of our own familiars or not. And if we can't do this, dear of charity of them, we are pretty poor Americans.

As a win-the-war proposition, the Red Cross work is a great thing. If all our men who are wounded are knocked out of the war we would be beaten pretty soon. But thanks to the Red Cross and other agencies, the great majority of them are soon able to go back in the fighting line. This makes a tremendous increase in a nation's fighting power. In fact, a nation could hardly prosecute a successful war today against a great power using scientific methods, unless it was equipped with such an agency as the Red Cross.

Membership in the Red Cross costs but a trifle. It pays for itself in the satisfaction of doing a bit to relieve the agony of war. A man must be hard up, indeed, to justify himself in refusing to join. In fact, the fee is so little that most of us should not be satisfied merely to join, but should take a number of memberships. In Newark school boys and girls in a few hours last Tuesday obtained nearly 6000 Red Cross memberships. Splendid work. However, there are many other people in this community who should join forces with this admirable organization without delay.

REASONS FOR RESIGNING.

(Ohio State Journal.) The Baptist minister down at Ironton has resigned and his reasons for taking this action he expresses in a public statement, a part of which is as follows:

"This responsibility I have faithfully tried to discharge. But owing to apathy, inertia, and indifference, I have signalized failed to arouse the church to a sense of her duty. Therefore, realizing such another might supply the dynamic force necessary to such a realization, I think it better for all parties concerned that I return the trust given me, that the cause of Christ might not be impeded."

1814—The Russian siege of Cracow by the army of General Dimitriev, raised by Austrians attacking the left flank.

1815—British house of commons approved of an army 4,000,000 strong; 1,250,000 were in the field.

1816—British recaptured El Arish, Egypt, which the Turks seized and fortified early in 1815.

GO TO CHURCH TOMORROW

Christmas will see a decided impetus to the War Savings campaign, for which the people are asked to "save" $2,000,000,000 for the government.

Those who give Christmas presents this year will take thought of the war and the nation's crisis and will exercise in the selection of gifts a share of the self-sacrifice and desire to serve, which America is asking of all her loyal citizens. H. P. Wolfe, state director of the Ohio War Savings committee, declares.

The state director, by the way, is setting the example by giving Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps, purchased from the government, as Christmas presents to members of his family.

The motto of the whole War Savings drive is "Save and Serve." These words describe accurately what the government proposes to accomplish in floating this new form of war loan. The treasury department is interested in getting 100,000,000 people of this country to participate in the war by contributing a few dollars or cents towards its financial prosecution.

For the person whose Christmas giving is limited, a Thrift Stamp, costing 25 cents, may represent an appropriate holiday gift. Others more are urged to buy at least one War Savings Stamp for $4.12. Many Newark employers will give Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates next Tuesday. Ask your mail-carrier or the postmaster for them. Get them at the newspaper offices. Some of the banks and a number of the merchants can supply you. Soon they will be on sale in many places.

"We have provided a way to make the people and the bondholders interchangeable terms."

"It falsifies the old proverb, 'You can't eat the cake and have it.' In this case, you can eat the cake and have it."

"I wish to see every wage earner in a strong economic position after the war. The wage earners can achieve that position and at the same time back the government by buying War Savings Stamps."

WAR AND CHRISTMAS.

(Chicago Herald.) Christmas this year means not the coming of peace, but the last great anniversary before many of our troops get into real action. Even so, we who remain at home may venture to send the men in service a Christmas message.

Some of them were holders of high civilian positions, some were laborers on the streets. They show now that in times of crisis all ordinary lines of social cleavage become trivial. They are all men, citizens, believers in an ideal—call it pride, call it patriotism, call it duty, the name makes no difference. To the great "thou must," they have replied, "I can." Officers, non-coms, privates, they are one in spirit.

Just what this war means, just what its outcome will be, nobody, in service or not, exactly knows. Nobody knew in '61 what was to happen—not even Lincoln. But, in service or not, we have all of us faith that as out of that terrible national conflict came a lasting national peace, so out of this conflict more terrible will come a peace far wider and as enduring. We cannot put our faith into phrases any more than we can our feeling for our soldiers. But just as after the war, for so long as we used to, never just the boys we used to know, but must always seem something a little finer for the renunciation they have made; so the world they fight for can never be to them or to us quite the same either. It will have passed an invisible boundary, taken a step toward the unity that the story of the birth of Christ has always symbolized in the hearts of those who read it.

Men in the war, your Christmas gift to your country is your Christmas message to you is that we do not distort it, underrate it, or forget it.

ON TAKING IT COOLY.

(St. Paul Pioneer-Press.)

Superfluous temperatures must go. That inevitable development has been visible in the distance for some time. The nation and the world are sorely in need of fuel for the carrying on of war and business. Thousands upon thousands of tons of coal are used every year to heat buildings to a temperature not required for health. Persons who were reared in flannels have been spending a sybaritic maturity in porcupine-knit or B. V. D.'s. Renting flats to the public has been largely a competition in temperatures. To the landlord who could outswelter the others went the tenant.

But a different order has come. The fuel board of St. Paul is urging business houses to reduce their temperature to 65 degrees. Similar steps have been taken in other cities. People are advised to wear clothes as they never have worn them before, at least since the days of the old wood-heater. Women, it is decreed, must dress "more sensibly."

Not the least of the results of fuel conservation is the reminder, as in the case of other economies, that the least wasteful way is the most healthful way. Our friend, Dr. Brady, preached long before war was thought of that an indoor temperature of 68 was good and 65 better. Alas, what the exhortation of hygienists could not do is now to be done by necessity. No, it won't be so comfortable a world as it used to be. But it will be a more ambitious world and a world with less sickness and domestic grief.

Spirit of the Press

We Can't Handle It.

It is very natural that Americans should sympathize with any Russian movement which gives promise of putting an end to Bolshevik rule. There is a difference, however, between sympathizing with Kaledines and Kornilov and seriously proposing outside interference with Russian affairs. Any attempt on the part of the Allies to mould Russia's war policy by the use of force would certainly be dangerous and might prove altogether disastrous. The advance of armies which claimed a right to interfere in the domestic affairs of France set the French people aflame and made the meteoric campaigns of Napoleon possible. If outsiders, with rifles in their hands, undertake to settle Russia's problems for her, nobody knows what the result will be.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Blue Baseball Outlook.

Philadelphia is not likely to figure largely on the baseball map of the country next year. With both clubs denuded of popular players, the outlook is gloomy for the fans. This is the less to be regretted since the great game is certain to have fewer patrons in any event. Most persons will be at work during daylight hours, and interest in sports is likely to give way to thoughts of what our boys are doing across the water.

Baseball is going through a temporary crisis. It is not likely to go into permanent eclipse. When the war is over, and the Huns have been laid low, baseball will be restored to its prestige, but no one is likely to mourn its present decline when the greatest game in the history of the world is being played out in another field.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Germany is doing its laughing at the United States army while the laughing is good.—Emporia Gazette.

JACKIE ACKNOWLEDGES SWEATER SENT HIM BY NETTICK CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The members of Nettick Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have been busily engaged in knitting for the U. S. navy and a number of sweaters have been sent by them to the Navy League. One of the members has received the following interesting, and grateful letter from a young man who was the recipient of one of the sweaters:

"Dear Madam:—Just a line to thank you for your sweater which I have received from your organization, through the city barracks, Brooklyn Navy yard. It was indeed a most welcome present as the weather has been very cold here and I only wish I could thank you in person instead of writing. I am in the U. S. Navy having answered my country's call about six months ago, and at present I am stationed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, N. Y., but I expect to go over any day now. I am having some photographs made of myself and if you care to have one I will surely send it. Again thanking you for your great generosity I beg to remain, Yours very truly, Harry I. Moffat, Yoeman, 2nd class, U. S.

"If you care to answer kindly send mail to my home as I do not know what day we shall sail and by so doing it shall be forwarded to me. My address is Harry I. Moffat, 6 Clay street, Newark, N. J. P. S. Give my regards to some lonesome girl away out there."

Washington, Dec. 22.—Neatless mincemeat, another culinary triumph in the art of food conservation, has been brought to the housewives of the country by the National Emergency Garden Commission as a worthy companion of pumpkinless pumpkin pie and gingerless ginger bread.

The new mincemeat officially described as a "camouflage" was tried on 500 troops on a transport, who pronounced it perfect and called for more.

Half a package of seeded raisins, half a pound of prunes stewed with lemon juice and peel, one quarter cup sweet cider, four tablespoons brown sugar. Chop the raisins and prunes together and the result is said to be a meatless mincemeat which will accord with the food administration's meatless Tuesday. As turkey does not violate the meatless diet, Christmas dinner may be complete.

Everything depends on the point of view. A woman in a decolleté gown may be shocked at the sight of a man in his shirt sleeves.

ZANESVILLE WOMAN'S SISTER KILLED IN THE L. & N. WRECK

Zanesville, O., Dec. 22.—News of the tragic death of Mrs. Thomas S. Moore, a sister of Mrs. Ellingham Sturges, who was a passenger on the ill-fated B. L. & S. accommodation train, which was crashed into Thursday night by an L. & N. express at Shepherdsville, Ky., was received at an early hour Friday morning by Willis A. Bailey. The announcement was contained in a telegram sent by Mrs. Sturges asking Mr. Bailey to communicate the fact to her friends in this city.

Later, Mr. Bailey had a telephone conversation with Mrs. Sturges, who is almost prostrated from the shock. Mrs. Sturges' escape from a like fate seems providential. She and her sister, Mrs. Moore, were in Louisville, Ky., where the former was expecting to meet her daughter, Miss Emily McKay Sturges, who is pupil at the School for Girls at Columbus. The train from Cincinnati, by which Miss Sturges was expected to arrive, was late and after Mrs. Sturges had boarded the train to return to Bardstown with her sister, she decided to get off and await the arrival of her daughter, and to this decision she owes her life. Mrs. Moore is thought to have been instantly killed.

Mrs. Moore had hosts of friends in Zanesville who were greatly shocked when apprised of her death. She was known to many Zanesville people as Mrs. Lee Dudley, for it was during her widowhood that she resided with Mrs. Sturges and her marriage to Thomas S. Moore of Bardstown, Ky., was solemnized at the Sturges home, on Woodlawn avenue, January 14, 1914, with the Rev. Father Roach officiating.

Mrs. Moore was a dramatic reader and gave a number of private readings in this city during her residence, which covered a period of three years.

Mrs. Moore was a daughter of the late Judge Enoch Edwin McKay and was born and reared at Bardstown, Ky. She was making elaborate plans for a family house party for the Christmas holidays and Mrs. Sturges, who, with her son, McKay Sturges, had been in Fairmont, W. Va., for several months, had gone to Bardstown to assist in the preparations for the event and from there the two sisters had gone to Louisville for the day.

There was a disturbing rumor to the effect that Mrs. Sturges herself had met with the tragic fate of her sister, but that was soon effectually put to rout by her telegram to Mr. Bailey.

Miss Emily Sturges had, evidently, postponed her home-going as she did not leave the Columbus School for Girls until Friday morning, and Miss Grace Latimer Jones, head of the school, received the tidings of Mrs. Moore's death while Miss Emily was enroute to the station. She was able to deliver the message to her before she boarded the train for Bardstown.

Mrs. Moore is survived by her husband, Thomas S. Moore; two sisters, Mrs. Edwin Robinson of Fairmont, W. Va., and Mrs. Emily McKay Sturges of this city, and a brother, Edwin McKay of Tyler, Tex. Plans for the funeral services have not been announced.

campus, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The tree chosen was the beautiful old pine near Burton Hall whose magnificent branches were strung with innumerable tiny electric light bulbs of various colors. Owing to the deep snow the crowd was massed on the pavement which runs on two sides of the campus and which at this point is elevated several feet above the tennis courts. HOSTESS HOUSE AT CAMP SHERMAN OPENED BY D. A. R.

Wednesday was a red letter day in the calendar of D. A. R. activities in Ohio, as it marked the opening of the "Hostess House" at Camp Sherman.

The D. A. R. Hostess House contains four large living or assembly rooms and 65 bed rooms and is equipped with plumbing and steam heat. Over the entrance—enlarged and illuminated—is the insignia of the order—the distaff and wheel—the 13 spokes of the latter representing the 13 original colonies. A beautiful flag floats over the building.

Daughters from over the state convened in one of the assembly rooms, blessing was invoked by the rector of St. Paul's church of Chillicothe and "Hercicide" was sung. Mrs. Harris of Toledo, State Regent, in addressing the Daughters reminded them that their part in the Spanish war, was relief work, care and provision of nurses, etc., and that it was owing to the fact that the Red Cross organization had assumed all such work that the Daughters had been able to do this big thing for Camp Sherman.

New York, Dec. 22.—The market for securities was again governed by the trend of foreign and domestic war inditions. For the most part these received unfavorable interpretation, as was evidenced by the large number of new low records registered by stocks and money held at recent firm rates for collateral, time funds again being in scant supply. Usually no money is obtainable, except for the shorter terms. This condition is expected to prevail until well into the coming year.

Wall Street.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Dec. 22.—Dealing were extremely narrow with insignificant price changes in the first half hour of today's 25th session of the stock market. Statement was again somewhat confused by the conflicting tenor of overnight advices from abroad.

The excessive dullness of today's stock market foreshadowed the imminent holidays. Dealings fell below normal and embraced only the better known issues. The strength of foreign bonds including Russia's and a moderate demand for shipping, oils and motors was almost the sole feature on the otherwise sidetracked market.

On the foreign side, the market was almost entirely dead, though a slight rally was evident in the later dealings. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 175,000 shares. Liberty is sold at 97.00 to 91 and the 3 1/2s at 98.48 to 98.54.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.

Nothing annoys William S. Hart more than that anyone should have the impression that his fears of reckless horsemanship are tricks of the stage or of the camera. At the conclusion of that harrowing episode this very calm and placid gentleman will give vent to his feelings on that subject as he moves stiffly and uneasily from chair to sofa in his dressing-room.

In the latest drama, "The Cold Deck," in which he opened a two-day engagement at the Auditorium yesterday and to great success, there are two remarkable scenes. One is a scene of a gambler who is locked up in a log-jail on suspicion of having held up a stage coach. An accomplice outside furnishes a horse, and Hart escapes from the jail and runs away. A thrilling chase ensues. When Hart breaks jail he jumps astride the horse from a height of twenty feet. This is a feat that will be seen at the Auditorium today and in addition the Hearst-Pathe News is shown.

Auditorium Notes. The Auditorium management has arranged to screen Mutual's eight-reel special "Heroic France" photographed under the auspices of the American Relief Clearing House in Paris by Melville Sherrill, the young American cameraman, in which the human side of the war in many cases is seen. In taking these pictures La Vey followed the story of events from the time of war to the armistice. Nothing is missed, there being splendid scenes of cavalry waiting behind the lines for a chance to get into action—events of settling accounts between men and horses, and displaying their impatience for the marching order. There are views of the regular encampments behind Verdun, tanks through the bogging of an Army, and one scene of 50 miles an hour. The Charlie Chaplin monoplane is displayed as one of the fighting machines of the west front.

On Monday afternoon between the hours of one-thirty and 2:30 every child in Newark will be admitted free to the Auditorium, also receiving a sack of candy. This is also a Christmas gift to the kiddies of our city and the manager gives below:

There is harmony in the cafe until it is accidentally discovered that lovely Beery, the Prodigy, has run off with Murray, two Entertainers in the race to her home with the idea of marrying her. Now it chance that Beery is married already, and to prove it she hires a crook to pose as a minister and manage to get the fortune through a fake marriage.

He nearly succeeded, but not quite. The minister arrives promptly, however, as does the crook, and the parson and his bride run him to the door to cross Beery and marry him (Trask) to Mary. Trask, though, believes it to be a wedding on the square.

Then ensues a sequence of the funniest, funniest comedy that I think you've never seen. You're not married, become the star of everybody, including the police force. Once the bogus status of the minister has been established there is a wild chase after the couple who, in the meantime, have secured a nice little honeymoon flat.

This comedy is seen Sunday and Monday.

"Hans Und Fritz." The great to occur success, "Hans Und Fritz," in the P. F. Fox's Holland Comedy Cartoon concert adapted for the stage, is due at the Auditorium Christmas day, matinee and evening. The Katzenjammer Kids, the former cartoonists, are to be a stage show, made a fortune for its producer. "Hans Und Fritz" said to be already on his way piling up another big money record for his owners. Special effects made to measure, scenes announcing some of the super attractiveness of the girls chorus of the new show. The song and dance effects have had the expert attention of Leo Esposito, the well-known producer, with the result that the production is said to be fairly electric tunefully. Frank Tannenblit, one of the ablest stage managers in the country, staged the production for both shows on Christmas day. Phone orders will be held until Monday evening only, no later.

"The Manx-Man." On Wednesday next there will be direct

GRAND.

Ben Hur.

"Ben Hur" is one of the few plays that have stood the test of time without any faltering interest on the part of the public. It was the attraction of the Manhattan, New York, last season, with a result of business larger than at any time before. It is true, the production is not new, but the story, the mechanical features of stage decoration go, but beyond that the play undoubtedly took hold of the minds and hearts of the packed crowds of that great as never before. It will be seen at the Grand Theater, Columbus, New Years week.

People go to see "Ben Hur" again and again, because there is so much to see and they always discover something new and different about the play that grows on one and while one may attend one performed and come away fully satisfied, he may attend another and go home with the idea of having seen the production. There are 250 participants in the chariot race. It takes eight cars to haul the scenery and property effects. Prices range from 75c to $2 in addition to the war tax.

Harry Lauder.

The coming of Harry Lauder to the Hartman theater, Columbus, on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 22 and 23, is an event of great importance in the entertainment world. Everyone knows of this remarkable little Scotman, whose fame as a singer and comedian of unexcelled originality has spread over the entire world. Harry Lauder is a true artist, a great genius and a great man. He is accompanied this season by a company of artists who join with him in giving an entertainment which will not be missed. But it is Mr. Lauder who everyone will wish to see and hear. Mail orders for this important engagement are being received now, also, and will be filled promptly in order of their receipt.

SOISSONS FIELD NOW A DESERT WRITES SHEPPARD

Lieut. James H. Sheppard, son of Mr. William C. Sheppard of Grand Rapids, and a former resident of Newark, a nephew of Mr. C. C. Robinson and Miss Eva Robinson of R. D. No. 3, Granville, and a grandson of the late Rev. T. J. Sheppard, Andersonville prison chaplain, writes an interesting letter from France. His account of a visit to Rheims and the battlefield near Soissons is particularly interesting. Under date of Nov. 21 he wrote:

The heavy artillery section left here a week ago for a visit to the French front. En route we picked up a French artillery officer detailed to escort us and reached Soissons in the late afternoon. In 1914 the Germans occupied Soissons for a few days and when they retreated from the Marne they established their line along the river Aisne, generally speaking, and dug trenches in the northern outskirts of the town. The result was that the town got the full benefit of their artillery fire and suffered accordingly.

Many homes are entirely demolished and most of them boast of one or more shell holes. A large part of one side of the cathedral was blown out, but is being repaired. There was very little activity at the time of our visit and had been very little since October 24 when the French pulled off a big smash and captured more than 10,000 prisoners and a lot of guns. The nearest we got to the Germans was two kilometers and it was as quiet as could be there.

One morning we went over the field of battle of October 24. We drove out north of Soissons eight miles or more to the high ground along which runs the Chemin des Dames. We intended to go on to some quarries close to the present German lines, which were said to be quite well worth seeing, but as the enemy was shelling the road about two kilometers ahead of us we could not do this. At the point where the road crossed what had been the German first line trenches we left the automobile and walked over the ground for a distance of 400 or 500 yards back of the first line.

"I wish you could have seen it! It was simply hash; not an inch of ground but what had been plowed up again and again by the French projectiles, nor was there a square foot of level ground left. The whole field was simply shell hole after shell hole, some of them twelve or fourteen feet deep and correspondingly large in diameter.

"As for the German trenches, there was no trace of them to be found at first, but later on we came upon remains of them in one or two places. The dugouts were of very great depth and for that reason were less damaged, but I imagine many prisoners must have been trapped in them when the French came over, for there was a good twenty-four feet of earth over the few I saw.

The field simply was strewn with hand grenades, both French and German, shell fragments, many un-fired German shells and small arms ammunition. I tell you we 'watched our step' carefully, as the experience of stepping upon a hand grenade might be most unpleasant. Before throwing they are safe, but when thrown they are armed and must not be monkeyed with.

At one point we found what was left of an airplane; it had been blown into fragments so effectually that most of it could not be found at all. In the mist that covered the earth it seemed this desert extended for miles and I have no doubt it really was of vast extent. Later when we were with some of the batteries which caused this destruction and got the statistics on ammunition expenditure we realized the destruction was in proportion to the means employed.

Right near the road was a quarry in which the Germans had sheltered a very large force. I don't know how many, but several thousand could easily be accommodated in the various galleries. It will make a fine place for the French. Although there was ten feet of limestone and twenty feet of earth for the roof it was in bad shape and pillars of masonry were being put in to support it. In one or two places heavy French shells had come right through, caved in the roof and buried a lot of the enemy. When we were there the French had not bothered to dig them out.

We left Soissons Sunday and drove to Rheims, stopping on the way to visit a couple of batteries. Having intended to lunch on the road to save time we had brought with us a lot of food. The officers of a railway battery which we encountered about 11:30 insisted on our lunching with them. So we presented them with what we had brought and joined them in their dining car, for so it was, although not like the dining cars we have in America. We had a perfectly magnificent lunch with four kinds of wine in the usual French fashion. The more distinguished the occasion the greater the multiplicity of the wines. These French officers certainly are well taken care of.

After the orgy we drove to Rheims. The Germans are only four or five kilometers from the center of the town and every day or two they drop shells upon it with field guns. While we were there it was boom, boom, all the time, but apparently shells were not bursting in the city that day. At least we didn't see any. We drove to the cathedral, walked all around it and then went inside.

The wonderful exterior carvings which were the pride of Rheims are done for. Many figures still are intact but the impression you get as you walk around it is that the greater part are mutilated. I was relieved, though, to find the inside is in much better condition. True, there are three or more gigantic holes in the walls and especially in the stone roof, but the interior is well preserved and the damage is repairable.

The Germans certainly did every-

BOWSER LOST TO DEMETRAL AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., Dec. 22.—William Demetral won from Paul Bowser of Newark in straight falls during the Chamber of Commerce wrestling show last night. The first came in 47 minutes and 48 seconds, being secured with a 'flying-mare' hold, after Bowser had been half stunned by falling against a post at the ringside. Demetral had rushed him to the ropes and Bowser fell heavily against the post, but quickly recovered. As they came back to the center of the mat, Demetral clamped a hold and threw his opponent far over his head. Bowser fell on the mat squarely on his back and was pinioned there by the Greek.

After a 10-minute intermission the contestants came back for the second endeavor, but it was seen plainly that Bowser had lost much of his steam in the previous drop to the mat. Demetral went after him like a mad man and quickly had him on the mat. It took just 22 seconds to get this decision with a half-Nelson and a body hold.

Bowser surprised many of his friends by the manner in which he handled the clever Greek and the bout was a dandy to witness. It was full of spectacular work, both men being exceptionally aggressive and fast. In one instance they got off the mat and were in an aisle of the auditorium, much to the satisfaction of the fans, who were on their feet several times during the contest. Referee Scott tried in vain to get them to resume their position on the mat, but they only returned when about everybody on the lower floor took a hand in getting them back.

In the semi-final bout Leslie Fishbaugh of Newark defeated Clyde Hinton of Columbus in straight falls. The first fall came in 15 minutes and 13 seconds with a half-Nelson and a hammerlock and the second in three minutes and seven seconds on a body hold.

It was one of the prettiest matches witnessed here during the present season and both boys showed the fans that they are thoroughly familiar with the game. They worked fast and, until the falls were secured it was anybody's match. They were pretty even on aggressiveness.

It was agreed, before the boys went to the mat, that, in the event no fall was secured in 20 minutes, the bout would be awarded to the most energetic.

In the preliminary bout Theodore Senadenos made good on his boast to Harry Eckert and Charles Solomon that he would throw both of them in less than 10 minutes. However, the young Greek had his hands full to make good. He disposed of Solomon in two minutes and 20 seconds, but Eckert proved to be a 'Tartar.' The tough German boy showed that he knows plenty about the wrestling game and with a little more experience, will make anybody of his weight extend himself to win. Solomon, too, was good, but he lacked the experience but has plenty of speed and is aggressive enough to make a good mat man in time.

Senadenos, the winner, is a big, husky fellow who has been at the game for about a year. Tall, rangy and a dandy specimen of athlete, he goes at his work like a mechanic and knows enough about the game that there is very little lost motion in his work. He makes every move count and does not throw away any of his energy in false or foolish action.

Now for the ladies: Cora Livington won from Grace Brady, taking the one fall necessary to win, in 12 minutes. They put on a very clever exhibition and their part of the entertainment was enjoyed by the spectators.

Dr. Scott of Lancaster was the third man in the ring, as usual, and those who have seen him referee in the past know that all the bouts were handled well.

APPEAL TO PUBLIC TO SPEND XMAS AT HOME.

Philadelphia, Dec. 22.—An appeal to the public to refrain from unnecessary traveling during the holiday so as not to congest its lines was issued last night by the Pennsylvania railroad company. The appeal sets forth that the company's lines will be called upon to carry about 15,000 soldiers on holiday leave from army cantonments to their homes and back again and to meet this situation successfully it requests that "as an act of patriotism, pleasure travel during the holiday period be suspended and that railroad travel be voluntarily restricted to necessary trips on the affairs of business."

AMERICA WILL AID STARVING FINNS.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Permission for the shipment of about 40,000 tons of corn and oats to Finland by way of Sweden has been granted by the food administration and the war trade board upon evidence that thousands of Finnish people are starving. Dr. Kearle Jutuus, special commissioner of Finland, already has arranged for transportation, which will require about ten ships. He will get the oats and corn as rapidly as the cargoes can be loaded.

An agent of the war trade board will be sent into Finland from Sweden to investigate conditions and make certain that Germany will not benefit by the American shipments.

We also had on his person a pocketbook, knife, keys, shaving brush and other articles said to be the property of Cummings. Cummings was also held as a witness. When the mayor bound over Gowdy to the grand jury in the sum of $300, he sarcastically remarked that was "no fine at all." So the Mayor made it $500. Cummings was held on $500 bond.

A couple cases of disorderly conduct was dismissed for want of evidence and a couple drunks drew fines of $5 and costs.

DESCRIBE TRIP THROUGH AIR AT 34 BELOW ZERO

The following interesting letter is from R. E. Ridenbaugh, a former employee of the local post office, now stationed at Ft. Omaha, Neb., where he is a member of the First Balloon Squadron:

Dear Mr. Murphy and all my friends at the office:—How are you all? Can you keep your fingers warm in this weather, or is it very cold out there? It is very cold here, it has been below zero for about 10 days and it is now 11 below (7:30 p.m.). The paper says it will be at least 20 below before morning.

I made the highest flight this afternoon that I have yet. I was up exactly 10,000 feet, and from the time we started from the ground until we got back we had all we could do to hold on. It was very wintry, and we had on all the clothes we owned and all we could borrow, and then we about froze. It took us one hour and forty-two minutes from the time we left the ground until we got back to it, and we were stationary at 10,000 feet for only 45 minutes. That is, we were not going up nor down for 45 minutes, but we were making some nice swings of about 1-2 to 3-4 of a mile and back all the time. Our thermometer registered 6 below when we left the ground, but when we started down it registered 34 degrees below. Just a little difference, eh? Well, yes, enough that I could not walk when we landed. There were three of us and they had to lift us all out of the basket and carry us to our quarters. I guess I am at least partly thawed out now.

But this is sure a fine town to be in. The people here treat you just like you were some relative or dear friend of theirs. There are about 2,000 of us here now, and there were 2,261 dinner invitations accepted last Sunday. Oh no, the people of Omaha don't treat us right! Ask any soldier at Ft. Omaha! He'll tell you. We expect to leave here some time this month and 2,500 of us have to be in France by February 1, so I may not be here very much longer. I hate to leave Omaha, and the old United States, but the sooner we get over there the quicker the kaiser will get his. But we can never expect to break Germany completely. They can always, "Hoch der kaiser," you know.

Well, how are you? What is the news around old Newark? Do you ever hear from Carl? I have written twice, but have not heard from him yet. Say, can you have them send me one of those identification coins or whatever they call them, from the Advocate's office? I would appreciate it very much, if you would. Tell all my old friends hello, and if I don't get to see you again, Good-bye, Good Luck, and God Bless all of you—R. G. Ridenbaugh, Ft. Omaha, Omaha, Neb., First Balloon Squadron.

Charles F. Mayer was reelected president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company, Wednesday.

Miss Mary B. Smith, who has been teaching in a young ladies' seminary at Jellico, Tenn., is home for the holidays.

Judge E. M. P. Brister received the sad news this morning of the death of his cousin, the Hon. John H. Putnam in Chillicothe.

(From Advocate December 22, 1902)

Josiah C. Shipley of Johnstown, and Miss Sadie Beasley, were joined in marriage at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. L. C. Sparks, Saturday.

Laura Korzenborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Korzenborn, died at the City hospital, Sunday morning.

The following pupils took part in the Christmas program for the schools of Miss Downey, Miss Johnson and Miss Acton: Goldie Miller, Elsie Roberts, Alice Warden, Ruth Rentz, Blanche Bline, Ruth Henderson, Dale and Don Johnson, Clifford Rentz and Willie Loughrey.

The Racket store of C. L. & A. S. Stephen, corner of West Main and Fourth streets, was entered last night by burglars. A suit of clothes and $12 being secured.

CHAIN LETTERS RUN INTO THE MILLIONS

Several of the young men in the office of the county engineer have been figuring where a chain-letter would end, numbered from one to 100, consecutively, each number representing six letters, each one of which asks the recipient to also send to six other persons.

The tenth chain would mean 64,461,178 letters, and if each one would send a quarter as requested it would represent $15,116,223. What would the hundredth chain represent? There are not enough decimal places to write it out. It would run up into hundreds of octillions.

Imagine then, if you can, every person responding with a quarter when an appeal is made through a chain-letter, and the recipient sends out six such letters, in a chain from one to 100. If you have a few leisure hours start figuring it up. It will mean a surprise.
